

SHIMLA

‘The Unforgettable Himachal’

Duration: 3 Nights & 4 Days

OVERVIEW OF SHIMLA

- Shimla, is the capital and largest city of the northern Indian state of Himachal Pradesh
- The city derives its name from Shyamala Devi, an incarnation of goddess Kali.
- The buildings of the city are designed in neo-Gothic and Tudorbethan style of architecture.
- Besides the temples and the palaces, there are many colleges and research institutions in Shimla.
- The city comprises many hill stations including Bushahr, Darkoti, Balson, Khaneti, Dhami, Kumharsain, Madhan, Ratesh , Sangri and Rawingarh, to name a few.

TOPOGRAPHY:-

- With a good number of scenic places, green hills, and snow-capped peaks, Shimla is blessed with immense natural splendour.

GEOGRAPHY:-

- Shimla is also a district which is bounded by
 - Mandi and Kullu in the North
 - Kinnaur in the East,
 - Uttarakhand in the South-east, and Solan and Sirmaur

BEST TIME TO VISIT:

- Shimla features a subtropical highland climate. The climate in Shimla is predominantly cool during winters and moderately warm during summer.
- March to June: This is a popular tourist season in Shimla as the weather is quite pleasant and perfect for outdoor activities. The temperature is comfortable and usually varies between 15°C and 30°C. If you are into adventure sports then this is the ideal time to try paragliding, trekking, camping and rafting.
